1040 Tax Update

November 5 - 6, 2019

Sioux Falls, SD

Course Description

This program is intended for tax professionals and is designed to provide up-to-date training on current tax law, regulations, and updates. This year's program will have significant education on recent cases and rulings and key legislation, provide an in-depth review and analysis of a number of tax areas, and cover newly enacted regulations and procedures critical to tax practitioners. The program stresses practical information to facilitate the filing of individual, small-business, and farm returns.

The 1040 Update will begin at 8:00 a.m. and adjourn at 4:30 p.m. each day, with registration and sign-in at 7:30 a.m. Lunch will be served on-site each day at 12:00-1:00 p.m. There will be a morning and afternoon break each day.

Our Presenters

Roger McEowen, J.D., Kansas Farm Bureau Professor of Agricultural Law and Taxation at Washburn University School of Law in Topeka, Kansas. He is a member of the Iowa and Kansas Bar Associations and is licensed to practice in Nebraska. McEowen publishes the online Washburn Agricultural Law and Tax Report (WALTR) which focuses on legal and tax issues that agricultural producers, agricultural businesses, and rural landowners face and he maintains the Agricultural Law and Taxation Blog. He is also widely published in law reviews and agricultural law publications and conducts agricultural tax and law seminars across the country. McEowen is also heard weekly on RFD-TV.

Paul Neiffer, CPA, is a principal in the Agribusiness Group at CliftonLarsonAllen. Based in Yakima, Washington, he specializes in income taxation and accounting services related to farmers and processors. Neiffer actively consults with farm families on succession planning issues and opportunities, and helps farmers understand the proper use of accounting systems to more profitably run their business. He authors a monthly column for Top Producer magazine and maintains the Farm CPA Today blog.

Ross Hirst, is a retired IRS Senior stakeholder Liaison for Kansas.
